

PAIA MANUAL FOR:

Marran Incorporated (Registration Number: 2019/381706/21) (the "Company")

PREPARED AND COMPILED IN TERMS OF:

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, Act 2 of 2002 (the "Act")

PREPARATION AND COMPILATION OF THIS PAIA MANUAL WAS DONE IN COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 51 OF THE ACT

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 General

The Act aims to give effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by the State and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

Section 51 of the Act specifically provides that the head of a private body must make a manual available which contains the information and details prescribed via sections 51(1)(a) through 51(1)(e) of the Act. In this context a "private body" is defined to include, amongst others, any former or existing juristic person (but excluding a public body).

The Company qualifies under the definition of "private body", and as such this PAIA Manual was prepared and compiled in compliance with section 51 of the Act.

1.2 Right Of Access

Section 50(1) of the Act provides that any requester must be given access to any record of a private body if:

- that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;

Initial:
Head of Company

- the requester complies with the procedural requirements of the Act relating to a request for access to that record; and
- access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Act.

Accordingly this PAIA Manual provides a reference to the records held by the Company and the process that needs to be adopted to access such records.

All requests for access to information (other than information which is available to the public) must be addressed to the information officer named in section 2 of this PAIA Manual.

5. INFORMATION REQUEST PROCEDURE

5.1 General

The Company's records may only be accessed by a requester once all of the prerequisite requirements for access have been met. This includes that:

- the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- the requester complies with the procedural requirements set out in the Act relating to a request for access to that requested record; and
- access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Act.

5.2 Request Form

A requester must use the prescribed form to make a request for access to a record of the Company. A request form is attached to this manual. For avoidance of doubt a request for access to a record of the Company must:

Initial:
Head of Company

- substantially correspond with Form C of Annexure B to the Act; and
- provide, indicate, specify, identify and/or state the disclosures/items required in section 53(2) of the Act. This includes that the request form must be completed with enough particularity to at least enable the Company's Information Officer (refer to 2.3 above) to identify: i) The Company record or records requested; ii) The full names and identity number of the requester; iii) The form of access required, if the request is granted; iv) The postal address or fax number of the requester; v) The right the requester is seeking to exercise or protect and vi) An explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of the relevant right.

5.3 Submission and Processing

The completed request form must be submitted to the Company's Information Officer identified in 2.3 above, at the postal, physical address or electronic mail address recorded in 2.3 above.

Processing of any request for information will be subject to payment of any and all mandatory fees as per 7 below.

If the request is made on behalf of another, the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which he is making the request, to the reasonable satisfaction of the Company's Information Officer (refer to 2.3 above).

5.4 Decision and Reply

The successful completion and submission of a request form does not automatically allow or grant a requester access to the requested record.

The Company will, within 30 days of receipt of a request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and will give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

Initial:
Head of Company

If, in addition to a written reply, the requester wishes to be informed of the decision on the request in any other manner, he must state that manner and the necessary particulars, along with the relevant request form, in order to be so informed.

The 30 day period within which the Company has to decide whether to grant or refuse a request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large volume of records, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the Company and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. The Information Officer will notify the requester in writing should an extension be or become relevant.

6. DENIAL OF ACCESS

6.1 Grounds

The Act provides a number of grounds on which a request for access to information could be refused. These grounds mainly protect the privacy of individuals and the confidential information of third parties.

Access to information could be refused in terms of Chapter 4 of Part 3 of the Act on the following grounds:

- Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that person;
- Mandatory protection of commercial information of third party, if the records contain: i) trade secrets of that third party; ii) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party; iii) Information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Company, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;

Initial:
Head of Company

- Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement or legislation;
- Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- The commercial activities of the Company, which may include: i) Trade secrets of the Company; ii) financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company; iii) information which, if disclosed, could put the Company at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition; iv) a computer program which is owned by the Company and which is protected by copyright;
- The research information of the Company or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of the institution, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage;
- Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

6.2 Remedies available when the Company denies a request for information

The Company does not have internal appeal procedures. Therefore, the decision made by the Information Officer is final. Requesters who are dissatisfied with a decision of the Information Officer will have to exercise external remedies at their disposal.

A requester or a third party, who is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, or with the disclosed information, may within 30 days of notification of the decision, apply to the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status for relief.

Initial:
Head of Company

7. FEES

7.1 General

The fees applicable are prescribed in terms of the Regulations to the Act. There are two types of fees payable in terms of the Act, namely Request Fees and Access Fees.

The Company's Information Officer (refer to 2.3 above) will withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated.

7.2 Request Fees

The non-refundable request fee is payable upon submission of any request for access to any record. This does not apply if the request is for personal records of the requester (no fee is payable in such circumstances).

The applicable request fee amounts to R50.00 (incl. VAT).

7.3 Access Fees

An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the Act or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8).

If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the Regulations to the Act for this purpose, the Company's Information Officer (refer 2.3) will notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted. If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Company's Information Officer (refer 2.3) will repay the deposit to the requester.

The applicable access fees which will be payable are (incl. VAT):
